2. With the Presidential By-Election now complete and Alan Campbell elected as the Association's President, the Executive reviewed its signing authorities.
3. Josh Watt shared a draft harassment policy for review and consideration by the Executive. By law, the Association is required to have policies in place to address harassment and violence in the workplace. At the January Executive meeting, a draft policy on violence will be shared.
4. Alan Campbell welcomed and introduced the newest member of the Executive, Lisa Naylor, Director Region 6. Lisa was recently appointed to the position by the Winnipeg school division. He invited everyone to introduce themselves.
5. A de-briefing of the November 29 & 30 Trustee PD and Regional Meeting sessions was held. By all accounts, the event was well received and feedback was quite positive from school boards.
