1. Louise Johnston, Louis Riel S.D. and Colleen Carswell, River East Transcona S.D. were re-appointed to the Non-Teaching Pension Plan Committee.
2. The Executive explored alternatives to hosting in-person meetings of the membership. The Executive decided that the association's Fall Regional and General Meetings would be held via remote means.
3. The Executive discussed the recently-released Louis Riel S.D. arbitration award.
4. The Executive discussed future opportunities regarding CSBA Congress and National Trustee Gathering on Indigenous Education.
5. Robyn Winters, Chief Financial Officer, reviewed the 2020-21 preliminary budget and responded to questions. The final budget will be presented and approved at the June Executive meeting.
6. Darren Thomas, Risk Manager, presented the Manitoba Schools Insurance (MSI) Committee's research to date with respect to insurance coverage in certain areas. Final recommendation will come forward at the June Executive meeting.
7. Education and Communication Services is producing a video highlighting the various local initiatives taking place across the province in support of students and families amidst the pandemic. Heather Demetriooff invited the submission of photos showing local efforts to provide food or enhanced technology to families, for inclusion in this project.
