

MVSD Planning Framework

The graphic below illustrates the Division's strategic planning framework. The Board sets strategic direction. The strategic directions influence and guide the Division planning process. School plans are reflective of the Division Plan and individual professional growth plans are reflective of school and division plans.

