1. The Executive approved the re-appointment of Derek Dabee, Seven Oaks S.D. to the Manitoba Schools Insurance (MSI) committee.
2. The Association's 2020-2021 budget was approved.
3. Executive's input was sought with respect to preferred date to hold the general meeting session this fall. Saturday, Nov. 21 was chosen. The logistics around the regional meetings will be determined by administration in the near future and shared with boards.
4. Executive discussed options relating to the 2021 annual convention. Typically, a contract would be signed with the hosting hotel, however given the uncertainties around public health orders, financial implications for boards as well as the association, the Executive determined that no contract should be signed at this time. The hotel will be notified.
5. Executive considered options on how best to utilize the balance of the radio campaign funds from February, ultimately deciding to postpone any decision until July.
6. Feedback with respect to a potential op-ed piece was sought, in response to a CBC article of May 27. The Executive were in favor of Alan and administration highlighting the positive work happening at the local level throughout the pandemic.
7. Josh Watt provided an update on the CSBA Board of Directors meeting related to the 2021 and 2022 CSBA Congress and National Aboriginal Trustees Gathering on Indigenous Education.
